Mattress Features

Knitted Cotton Fabric

Since cotton is a natural fiber, it has a breathable structure. This helps regulate body temperature and reduces sweating, providing a more comfortable sleeping experience. Cotton fabric has high air permeability. This feature allows air circulation within the mattress system, creating a cool and comfortable sleep environment, especially in warm conditions.

Comfort Foams

Mattress foam systems can be designed in accordance with the anatomical structure of the body. This supports proper spinal alignment, promoting a healthier sleeping posture and helping to reduce back pain. Foams distribute body weight evenly, minimizing pressure points. This feature helps prevent pain and discomfort in areas exposed to excessive pressure during sleep.

Air circulation layer features

Breathable mattress layers help wick moisture away from the body. They support the absorption and evaporation of moisture caused by perspiration, contributing to a drier and more comfortable sleep experience. Breathable layers also help reduce the accumulation of dust mites and allergens, creating a healthier sleep environment, especially for individuals sensitive to allergies.

Hercules Spring Systems

Hercules spring systems are generally durable and long-lasting. Made from high-quality steel springs, these systems can ensure that the mattress does not deform over time.

Pocket Spring Systems

Pocket spring systems distribute body weight evenly, reducing pressure points. This can help relieve pain and discomfort in areas such as the lower back, shoulders, and hips.

Rabbit Fur Fabric

Synthetic rabbit fur fabrics have an exceptionally soft touch. Areas that become damp from perspiration during sleep dry quickly. This feature helps keep the mattress clean and dry.

Optional Features

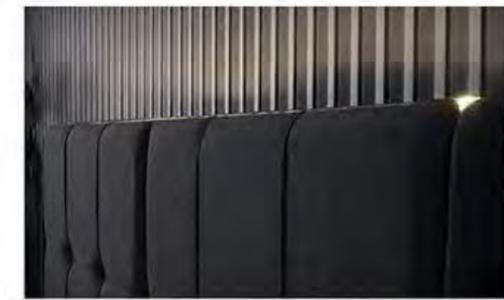

Wireless & USB Charging Systems

Wireless charging systems integrated into headboards reduce cable clutter within the home and enhance overall organization. This provides a clean environment and a more aesthetic appearance.

USB charging ports are widely used solutions for charging various devices. They offer convenient compatibility, allowing devices of different brands and models to be charged easily.

Lighting Systems

LED strip lighting with a slim and flexible design can be easily integrated into headboard surfaces. It is generally used as an atmospheric and decorative light source.

Using multi-layered lighting systems in headboard designs is an effective way to add depth and visual appeal to interiors. Lighting integrated into bed bases and headboards can highlight objects placed on the bed.

BADE

The delicate stance in Bade's design, in contrast to the sharp edges of the modern world, brings a peaceful sanctuary identity to your bedroom. The flowing forms of the headboard design interact with light, creating a different visual spectacle at every hour. It is not just a piece of furniture, but a touch that gently soothes the soul of your room.

A bedroom is not merely a place where we sleep; it is the most private space where we leave the day's fatigue at the door and remain alone with ourselves. The Bade Set is designed to transform this space into a true "home" with its warm and embracing presence. The first feeling you experience when you encounter it is a deep sense of belonging and tranquility. The soft transitions and inviting silhouette in its design welcome you to rest the moment you step into the room.

Mattress & Bed Base Sets

BADE

Bade's character is built on clarity and balance. The flawless proportions between the headboard and the base create a visual rhythm in your bedroom. Free from unnecessary ornamentation, this set presents function and form in their purest state. It is an ideal choice for those who keep pace with contemporary living without compromising on comfort.

BADE

Bade combines modern technology with the purity of nature to elevate your sleep quality. Its unique texture, from which it takes its name, along with the next-generation support system, transforms every moment spent in bed into a restorative ritual. The Pocket Spring System, fully aligned with body ergonomics, provides flawless support to your spine at every point.

Independently moving springs prevent partners from being affected by each other's movements, providing an uninterrupted and deep sleep environment. The Cotton Knit Fabric, which prioritizes naturalness, offers a gentle and skin-friendly touch. Thanks to cotton's natural breathability, it helps regulate your body's balance.

VERONA

VERONA

Salerno is not just a sleep space, but also the strongest complement to your décor. With its timeless presence, it is a style icon that will remain current for years to come. At the intersection where aesthetics meet functionality and elegance meets comfort, Salerno promises you a living space where you will wake up with joy every day.

Mattress & Bed Base Sets

The flowing lines and geometric harmony in Verona's headboard design create a sense of order and tranquility from the moment you enter the room. Every corner reflects masterful craftsmanship, where sharp lines meet soft transitions. Thanks to its eye-friendly silhouette, it achieves a unique harmony with other furniture in your bedroom instead of competing with them, enhancing the room's overall energy.

The nature-inspired color palette and simple headboard design bring a sense of spacious unity to the room, while the wide frame structure turns Salerno into not just a bed, but a strong centerpiece of the space. At the core of the concept is a timeless approach that combines visual simplicity with comfort.

LUCCA

A good night's sleep is possible not just with a comfortable mattress, but also with a strong foundation. The Lucca Bed Base is designed to be the "unsung hero" of your bedroom, with its superior frame structure that enhances your mattress's performance and stands the test of time.

Not only remarkable for its sturdiness but also for its load-bearing capacity, Palermo safely supports even the heaviest mattresses while featuring a special balance system that preserves the spacious storage area beneath. It is more than just a bed base: it is a solid foundation upon which you can confidently build your dreams.

LUCCA

Every bedroom has a soul, and every décor tells a story. The Lucca Mattress Set goes far beyond being ordinary furniture, designed like a work of art that takes center stage in your living space. This special series, blending modern design language with a classic weight, transforms the room's energy entirely with its strong silhouette that welcomes you the moment you step into your bedroom.

Freshness and organization in your bedroom are just as important as comfort. Beneath its stylish exterior, the Lucca Mattress Set hides a massive interior that offers a professional solution for your home's storage needs. This spacious area allows you to safely store everything from seasonal clothes and duvets to pillows and rarely used items, functioning almost like a "second wardrobe" in your room.

PERA

How you start your day determines how it continues. The Pera Bed Set is designed to create a spacious, breathable, and bright living space in your bedroom—replacing a dark and oppressive atmosphere. Its pure aesthetic and clean lines radiate positive energy into the room, helping to lighten your mood.

The most captivating surprise in Pera's design is the modern LED lighting technology skillfully concealed within the headboard. This refined detail allows you to transform the atmosphere of your bedroom with a single touch, creating a soft, dim ambiance that is easy on the eyes—without the harshness of main lighting in the quiet of the night.

Whether you wish to unwind with your favorite book after a long day or simply soften the energy of the room, this elegant beam of light accompanies you with subtle sophistication.

CLARA

Stress of the day, the noise of the city, and the endless rush...Clara Bed is designed to help you leave it all behind and surrender to peace. The extra-plush comfort layers on the mattress surface gently cradle your body, offering a cloud-like softness that makes you feel as if you're floating. This is not just sleep — it is a relaxation therapy repeated every night.

This special structure puts an end to waking up with lower-back and back pain. By keeping you in an ideal sleeping position throughout the night, it delivers an uninterrupted sleep experience. Support layers that help your muscles relax and improve blood circulation minimize movements during sleep.

Clara sits at the “perfect balance” point between firm and soft — it neither lets you sink in and restrict movement nor disturbs your comfort with excessive firmness. Every morning, you will rise from bed feeling as if all fatigue has been erased, fully refreshed and ready to face the day.

The foundation of a healthy life begins with the flawless support provided by Clara.

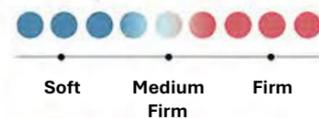

The handle of the Clara Mattress symbolizes the power of minimalism. With its simple, elegant lines and sophisticated structure, it adds a modern touch to your bedroom while offering significant functional convenience. Going beyond traditional mattress handles, its unique design integrates seamlessly with the mattress, completing the overall look in perfect harmony.

Clara Mattress is equipped with a pocket spring system that perfectly adapts to the shape of your body. Each spring moves independently, providing balanced support to every point of your body. This system helps your muscles relax while also maintaining your ideal sleeping position throughout the night.

Sierra Mattress adapts to every contour of your body with advanced visco foam technology. Sensitive to body heat, the visco foam molds perfectly to your shape, providing a precise, body-hugging fit. This feature supports the natural curvature of your spine while reducing pressure points, ensuring all-night comfort. Visco foam is especially ideal for those experiencing back and lower-back pain, as it delivers targeted support exactly where needed. By responding to your movements, it also helps you achieve a deeper, uninterrupted sleep throughout the night.

The Sierra Mattress is supported by a pocket spring system in which each spring moves independently. This ensures balanced support across every part of your body, helping to distribute body weight evenly during sleep while maintaining the natural alignment of the spine. The pocket springs gently conform to your body, allowing you to settle into a comfortable sleeping position. The system also provides motion isolation, preventing you from feeling your partner's movements and ensuring a more peaceful sleep experience for couples.

The plush quilting, reflecting Berfa's elegant and aesthetic approach, brings art and functionality together in the designs. Each stitch is carefully crafted, offering not only a visual feast but also enhancing the strength and durability of the set. The quilted details add depth and movement to the surface, giving your bedroom a luxurious touch.

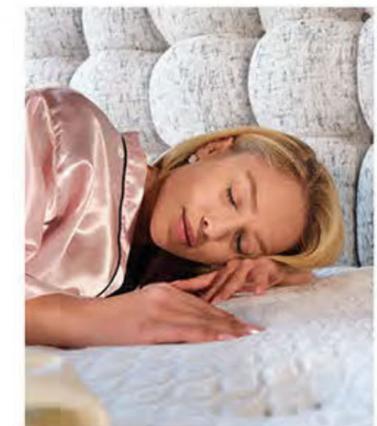

This quilting, particularly notable for its plush structure, highlights the softness and comfort of the designs. Beyond its visual elegance, this fullness provides a structure that enhances the user's comfort.

Flawless craftsmanship is felt in every detail of Berfa products. Every stitch, fabric choice, and filling material is meticulously combined. This care ensures that the products are not only aesthetically pleasing but also long-lasting. The modern techniques used in the quilted details allow the patterns to be distributed evenly, achieving a visually harmonious surface. Each pattern is designed with perfect symmetry, adding an aesthetic balance to the overall structure. This is not just a design detail but a testament to a commitment to quality.

One of Berfa's unique designs, the Neon Bed is carefully crafted to provide an uninterrupted sleep experience. Thanks to the soft texture of its rabbit-fur fabric and its padded structure, this bed perfectly adapts to your body during sleep, making you feel as if you are floating on clouds.

The cotton fabric used in Berfa mattresses is designed to transform your sleep experience into natural comfort. Thanks to its breathable structure and moisture-absorbing properties, cotton keeps your body dry and cool throughout the night, eliminating sweating or discomfort during sleep.

The soft texture of the cotton fabric perfectly conforms to your skin and minimizes friction that could interfere with your body's relaxation. This natural material not only soothes the body but also enhances sleep quality, allowing you to spend the night peacefully and healthily. Mattresses covered with cotton fabric maintain a natural temperature balance, providing the comfort your body needs.

High-density soft foam is one of the cornerstones of Berfa mattresses' quality and elevates comfort to a new level. This special foam perfectly adapts to every part of your body, establishes an ideal pressure balance, and gives a deep sense of relaxation every time you lie down.

Soft foam provides a gentle, plush feel while its high-density structure delivers long-lasting support. The comfortable sensation it distributes across the body during sleep is essential for a relaxing and restful night. This technology allows the body to fully unwind and rejuvenate throughout the night.

The Hércules spring system provides excellent support for your sleep health. This system properly supports every part of your body and maintains the natural alignment of your spine. The flexibility offered by the Hércules springs delivers customized support for different areas of your body.

Cotton fabrics provide breathability, making your mattress more ventilated. This feature helps regulate body temperature, creating a cool and comfortable sleep environment.

Cotton has a natural moisture-absorbing property. By absorbing the moisture that causes sweating, the mattress surface stays drier, increasing comfort during sleep. Cotton is a soft fabric with a pleasant texture, making the mattress surface feel more luxurious and comfortable.

Cotton is generally a hypoallergenic material that does not cause allergic reactions. This property makes it a more suitable choice for sensitive skin. Cotton fabrics are usually durable and offer long-lasting use. They also stand out for their washability and easy maintenance.

Cotton is a natural material and is generally considered environmentally friendly. Sustainable cotton production aims to minimize environmental impact. Cotton fabrics tend to provide a cool sensation in hot summer months and a warm feel during winter.

Overall, cotton fabrics are preferred to provide a comfortable, healthy, and durable sleep surface. However, depending on individual preferences and needs, other types of fabrics can also be considered.

The enhanced springs used in the Magic Bed layers adapt instantly to the human body, helping maintain the natural shape of the spine. This contributes to reducing bed-related lower back and back pain.

Bonell springs are firmer compared to other spring systems. In this system, steel wire springs provide support according to body weight, helping maintain the natural alignment of the spine.

Choosing the right mattress is essential for spinal health. A firm or soft mattress does not necessarily mean it is the right one. Therefore, when purchasing a mattress, it should always be tested to ensure you select the most suitable option for your body type.
